

Kohan Reflection Garden Volunteer

The Kohan Reflection Garden was created to honour the Japanese Canadian citizens who were interned here. It is a strolling garden and a peaceful place to enjoy the beauty of the plants and natural landscape along the shores of Slocan Lake.

Responsibilities:

Learn how to create a beautiful, welcoming and reflective space while broadening your understanding of landscaping and grounds management through hands-on experience with mulching, composting, planting, pruning, mowing, irrigation, and invasive weed control.

Qualifications

- Self-motivated and interested in gardening
- Willingness to work outdoors in all weather conditions
- Good communication and listening skills
- Able to perform repetitive, physical labour
- Willingness to take direction regarding gardening requirements

Time commitment: 1-2 hours a week.
